

GENERAL AND SPECIFIC RULES OF PROBATION

The following provides a sample of the standard document executed by persons admitted to probation in the Washington Court House Municipal Court. The terms and conditions are subject to amendment as directed by the Presiding Judge.

READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

"You are in custody of the Court by reason of your misdemeanor conviction. Your rights are restricted until your probation is terminated. As a probationer, you can be arrested without a warrant by any Probation Officer or any other police authority, whenever there are reasonable grounds to believe that you have violated the terms of your probation."

Probation is for a period of _____ years.

GENERAL CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO ALL PROBATIONERS

1. I will avoid trouble and places where the law is violated by others.
2. You shall contact the Probation Officer within 48 hours of an arrest, or questioning by any law enforcement officer.
3. I will support those persons whom I am required by law to maintain support, and seek a job if unemployed.
4. Must obey all Court orders issued by this Court or any other court.
5. Must not use abusive language to court personnel.
